Old Bethpage, NY – Family Residences and Essential Enterprises, Inc. (FREE) was happy to host Kathleen Attanasio, Branch Manager at People’s United Bank in Huntington, who volunteered to lead a baking class for the residents at FREE’s residential program in Medford. The group learned how to create a variety of sweet treats for Valentine’s Day. Everyone learned a little something, ate delicious cookies, and had tons of fun while doing it.

“My thanks go out to Kathleen Attanasio for, again, taking the time to teach our residents a skill they can use throughout their lives, in a fun and tasty way,” said Robert S. Budd, CEO, FREE. “We look forward to welcoming her again very soon,” he continued.
