Our Corps frequently performs at world class events out in the community, it is very important that we are confident that all members are able to follow the rules and are capable of conducting themselves in a mature professional manner to the best of their ability, at all times. Failure to do so may result in not being allowed to participate in Drum & Bugle Corps.

The most important rule we have for anyone that wants to join our Corps is, "You have to want to be here!" The FREE Players Drum & Bugle Corps only accepts people who display that they are extremely passionate, hardworking, dedicated individuals who want to learn and be the best they can be.

If you are selected to join the FREE Players Drum & Bugle Corps you will be required to attend all rehearsals and performances that correlate with your section. Sufficient notice is required in the event the individual or participant cannot attend a rehearsal or performance. All new members are strongly encouraged to receive weekly private instruction on their respective instruments at a local music school/store in order to maintain a prominent role in the Corps.

In the event the individual or participant who is auditioning does not have access to any device to be filmed, please email FREEDrumCorps@FamilyRes.org. Other arrangements will be made to see if the individual or participant meets the basic requirements to be eligible to audition,
2. If the individual or participant passes our video audition you will be contacted by a FREE Players Drum & Bugle Corps Staff to arrange a Phone Interview with the individual or participants Family/Care Manager/Residential Manager to confirm the individual or participant meets standards & requirements to be eligible to audition. Pending the individual or participant meets the requirements and is eligible to audition, you will be emailed our official Audition Application and a date will be arranged for the

A Family Member, Care Manager, Day Program/Residential/Community Hab or Self Direction worker must be present with the individual or participant for the full duration of their visit. On the day of their visit please make sure to bring in your completed Audition Application. The visit will be used as a meet and greet with members and staff. The individual or participant may/or may not be asked to participate for a portion of the rehearsal during their visit.

3. If you are not able to conduct yourself in a respectful professional manner during the audition process you will not be asked to return after your visit. If your visit goes well, you will be scheduled to attend a two week trial period that will also include a private audition at the end based on the section, instrument and spot in the FREE Players Drum & Bugle Corps you are auditioning for.

4. In the event the person auditioning meets all standards, requirements, has a successful private audition and trial period, a decision will be made for you to join the FREE Players Drum & Bugle Corps based on your musical ability, natural talents and chemistry with existing Corps members. If you have been selected to join the Corps and do not already receive respite services, or are not a member of a FREE residence or program, arrangements will be made at this time for you to receive Respite services. Once you have been admitted into our Respite Program, this will finalize your membership with the FREE Players Drum & Bugle Corps. If you live in a Residential Group Home and are not eligible to receive Respite services, other arrangements will be made to finalize your membership with the FREE Players Drum & Bugle Corps.
